EXAMINATIONS PROCESSES AND PROCEDURES

- (i) Rules and Regulations - Examinations are very important component of a student's academic life and students are expected to familiarize themselves with the general examination rules and regulations and specific examination rules and regulations in the programmes they have been admitted to and that they have fulfilled all the examination requirements in each semester.
- (ii) Registration - At the start of each semester (within the first three weeks) every student must register for courses and the examinations that they are due to take during the semester, by completing the relevant forms at the Directors of school offices. It is important that students get the right information for their respective schools on the examination they are expected to take in each semester.
- (iii) Attendance - Students should note that they are required to attend all courses they are registered in and to take the requisite continuous assessment tests in those courses in order to be allowed to sit the end of semester examination.
- (iv) Problems - A student who experiences a problem, which is likely to affect his/her examination performance (i.e. sickness, bereavement etc) must report such problems in writing to the chairman of the department offering the courses the student is taking and to the Director of the school. Any problem that is reported after taking the examination shall not be acceptable for examination appeals.
- (v) Examination cards - Every student who is registered for UNIVERSITY examination will be issued with an examination card by their respective schools. This card is the property of the UNIVERSITY.
- (vi) Lateness - Lateness to examination venues will not be tolerated and no student will be allowed to enter an examination room 30 minutes after the start of the examination, and also no student will be allowed to leave the examination room during the last 30 minutes of the examination.
- (vii) Cheating - Any student caught cheating in examinations e.g. by copying, having or making reference to unauthorized materials; communication with other students verbally or through other means shall be expelled from the UNIVERSITY and shall not be eligible for re-admission to any other programmes of the UNIVERSITY. Students are advised to ensure that at no time do they carry unauthorized materials such as notes, books, handbags, mobile phones e.t.c into the examination rooms.
- (viii) Missing an examination - Missing an examination without good cause is a serious offence. Misreading of examination timetables is not taken to be a good cause of missing examinations and it's therefore not condonable.
- (ix) Appeals - All appeals must be made within 30 days for the day the results are released. This includes requests for remark of examination scripts.
- (x) Answer books - Students must not take answer books form the examination rooms.
- (xi) Examination results - Provisional examinations results will be released from the respective office of the Director of school.
- (xii) Academic Transcripts - Academic transcripts are available at the end of each academic year and are issued on application to the Registrar Academic Affairs.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES AND PROCESSES

Deferment of admission - An applicant who for any reason is unable to take up the offer of admission will be required to inform the Registrar Academic Affairs by either filing in Form of the joining instructions or writing directly to the academic registrar. This information should reach the Registrar Academic Affairs registrar at least one week prior to the date of registration. Such deferment will lapse after two years and the applicant will be required to reapply afresh for admission. It is important that an applicant who defers admission ensures that he or she receives an official letter of deferment of admission from the Registrar Academic Affairs. An applicant who fails to inform the Registrar Academic Affairs of his/her deferment of admission will be deemed to have forfeited his/her position and will be deregistered from the course admitted to.

Student identity cards - After the registration formalities and payment of fees, every student is issued with a student identity card bearing his/her picture and name, registration number and the course and, school, registered in and the duration of the course. The identity card allows easy identification of students and gives the student access to various UNIVERSITY services (e.g. the library, the hostel etc.) Every student must ensure that they have their student identity card at all times and that the card has the correct information and is valid for the duration the student is in the UNIVERSITY.

Loss of identity card - A student who loses his/her UNIVERSITY identity card will be required to report the loss to a police station and acquire an abstract. They will also be required to report the loss to their school offices from where they get a letter confirming the loss and their student status. After getting these two documents the student should report to the library for a clearance not to indicate that the card is not held in the library. After that the student report to the Admissions office for a re-issue of the student card upon payment of Kshs.500.

Temporary withdrawal - If for any reason a student who is already registered for a programme has to leave the University for a particular period, the student will be required to apply to the Registrar Academic Affairs for temporary withdrawal. All applications for temporary withdrawal must be endorsed by the Director of the respective school and must state the reasons and the duration of such withdrawal. Any student who withdraws from a programme without seeking appropriate authority will be deemed to have absconded from the course and will therefore be de-registered.

Absence due to illness - A student whose illness may affect learning must contact the University Director Medical services at the earliest time possible. The advice given by the Director Medical services will than be communicated to the Director of the school and the Academic Registrar.

Nominal roll - The nominal roll is a record of students registered in each degree programmed every semester/year. It gives important details on the student as well as recording the progress of the student each semester (and yearly). It is important for every student to ensure that he/she signs the nominal roll in the Directors office of their respective school at the beginning of each semester and to ensure that the information given in the nominal roll is correct and up to date.

Course/subject registration - Every student is required to register for the course/subjects he/she will undertake by filling in the relevant form at the Directors office at the beginning of every semester (first three weeks). The student must ensure that the registration is complete by having the form approved and signed by the chairman of department where the courses are to be offered and the Directors of the respective school. When registering for the courses the student will do well to ensure that the correct course codes are used and that the form is returned to the Director's Office promptly.
